

2017 PRAIRIE BOYS BASKETBALL CAMP

Daily instruction will be given to campers focusing on fundamentals of the game and skill development. Shooting, ball handling, defense, court awareness, and knowledge (Basketball IQ) will be the focus of the four-day camp. Head coach Jason Atanasoff and The Prairie School coaching staff, current and former players and several special guests will conduct the camp.

- Varsity assistant David Roehl has over 35 years of coaching experience at the high school and collegiate level. He has run numerous camps in the Racine/Kenosha area.
- Team Members from the 2017 Metro Classic Conference Champions will be present to teach and interact with all campers.
- With over 50 campers several years in a row, spots fill up quick. Please register your son sooner rather than later!

When: June 12th - 15th from 12 - 2 pm

Where: The Prairie School's Johnson Athletic Center

For: Boys entering grades four through nine.
Open to all players, not only players from Prairie.

The cost for the four-day camp is $75.

For more information, please contact Jason Atanasoff at jatanasoff@prairieschool.com.

Online registration is required

"Our camp is designed to provide players with a lot of one-on-one attention from knowledgeable and experienced instructors. I'm also thrilled to work with up-and-coming high school basketball players. I look forward to the camp and am confident all campers, regardless of ability, will leave having both improved in some aspect of their game and also learn some new and useful information they can take with them."

- Coach Jason Atanasoff
